

3- Azure External Identities

- An external identity is a person, device or a service that is outside the organization.
- Microsoft Entra External Identities refers to all the ways to securely interact with the users outside the organization.
- You can share your resources and define how your internal users can access external organizations.
- The following capabilities make up external identities
  1. B2B Collaboration
  2. B2B direct connect
  3. B2C Collaboration